

1. Which of the following is a characteristic of a Chinese “shadow bank”?
 - a. accepts deposits
 - b. is subject to strict financial regulation
 - c. does not create credit
 - d. may offer trusts and money market funds

2. Which of the following is generally not a concern of a foreign investor in the Chinese stock market?
 - a. static share prices
 - b. convertibility of the RMB
 - c. market transparency
 - d. poor regulation

3. The major new trade initiative the US is promoting in the Pacific Rim is called:
 - a. The Trans Pacific Partnership
 - b. The Pacific Pact
 - c. The Pacific Trade Agreement
 - d. The Pacific Rim Pact